IPA Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20060069-IPA

OPEN: 03/24/2006

CLOSE: 05/24/2006

THIS POSITION WILL BE FILLED UNDER THE TERMS OF THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL PERSONNEL ACT (IPA)

The National Science Foundation is seeking a qualified candidate for the position of Program Director in the area of Social Informatics in the Division of Information and Intelligent Systems (IIS), Directorate for Computer and Information Science and Engineering (CISE), Arlington, VA.

The Division of Information & Intelligent Systems supports research and education that increases the capabilities of human beings and machines to create, discover and reason with knowledge by advancing the ability to represent, collect, store, organize, locate, visualize and communicate information. The division contributes to interdisciplinary research on how observational data leads to discovery in the sciences and engineering. More information about IIS can be found on their website at

<http://www.nsf.gov/div/index.jsp?org=IIS>

Social Informatics is the study of the design, uses, and consequences of IT, paying particular attention to the institutional and cultural contexts of the IT. Research focuses on inter-relationships among people, their institutional and cultural contexts, and their uses of information and communications technologies.

For IPA assignments, the individual remains an employee on the payroll of his or her home institution and the institution continues to administer pay and benefits. NSF reimburses the institution for NSF's negotiated share of the costs. Individuals eligible for an IPA assignment include employees of State and local government agencies, institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, federally funded research and development centers and qualified nonprofit organizations. For more information regarding IPA assignments, visit our website at : http://www.nsf.gov/about/career\_opps/rotators/ipa.jsp.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in Computer Science or related IT field and extensive experience in Social Sciences. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience in the above areas of research are required. In rare instances, the Division of Information and Intelligent Systems would consider applicants with a Ph.D. in the Social Sciences, as long as the applicant has undergraduate or masters' degrees and/or extensive experience in the field of Computer Science. Applicants applying for this position must have a combination of education and extensive research experience in both fields. Applicants should display leadership in the area of Social Informatics and have an interdisciplinary background in the Computer Information Sciences and the Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: As Program Director directs in the implementation, review, funding, post-award management, and evaluation of the program and contributes to the intellectual integration with other programs supported by the Division. Designs and implements the proposal review and evaluation process for relevant proposals. Selects well qualified individuals to provide objective reviews on proposals either as individuals or as members of a panel. Conducts final review of proposals and evaluations, and recommends acceptance or declination. Manages and monitors on-going grants, contracts, interagency and cooperative agreements to ensure fulfillment of commitments to NSF. Evaluates progress of awards through review and evaluation of reports and publications submitted by awardees and/or meetings at NSF and during site visits. Contributes to the responsibility for establishing goals and objectives, initiating new program thrusts and phasing out old projects. Recommends new or revised policies and plans in scientific, fiscal, and administrative matters to improve the activities and management of the Program.

HOW TO APPLY: Applications may be transmitted electronically to rotator@nsf.gov. Individuals may also submit a resume or any application of your choice to the National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22230, Attn: E20060069-IPA. In addition, you are encouraged to submit a narrative statement that addresses your background and/or experience as it relates to this position. You are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form. Submission of this form is voluntary and will not affect your application for employment (the information is used for statistical purposes). Telephone inquiries may be referred to the Executive and Visiting Personnel Branch, at 703-292-8755. For technical information, contact Dr. C.
